2012 ACTIONS

PRIORITY ONE: Mission and Religious Education

1.1 To participate in trial – Enhancing Catholic Schools Identity Project by Leuven University

ACTIONS:

Participated in trial ‘St Vincent’s Primary School should be commended for its efforts in gathering research data’ (Report page 5)

- Based on these results, it is clear that the Catholic identity of St Vincent’s Primary School rests on a firm foundation of support from both adults and students. Many of the building blocks necessary to carry St Vincent’s Primary School’s Catholic identity into the future are in place.

- It was recommended that St Vincent’s Primary School help students to develop a strong Post-critical Belief that will allow them to grapple with the complexities and dynamics of Recontextualisation and Dialogue.

1.1 To review of School’s Mission Statement

ACTIONS:

After completing Vision for Learning and sharing with community a working party assisted by John McArdel reviewed St Vincent’s Covenant (created 2004)

- Involved talking about recent documentation – eg RLOS, Melbourne Declaration, Australian Curriculum
- Determining what needed to be changed, deleted or added
- Making document more visually appealing
- Draft presented to staff and at P&F meeting
- A new charter written
- Published

1.2 To explore use of technology in Religious Education

- PD session with James Robinson on WEB 2 Tools

1.4 Continued staff involvement in Spirit Fire and Guiding Lights

- Principal, APA and 4 teachers continued to be involved
- NOTE: Needs to be a catalyst for whole staff development and change
